

SOCIETY

WALK-OVER
Removal Shoe SaleWill be continued all this Week at the Reduced
PricesOld Location
113 S. El Paso StreetNew Location
114 San Antonio StreetMasonic Jewelry
20% OffThis week we are offering a discount of 20% on our entire complete stock of
Masonic jewelry.

See Mesa Avenue Window

Silberberg
TEXAS & MESA

"The mere thought of buying a diamond should suggest Silberberg's."

WEDDINGS.

An attractive church wedding solemnized last evening was that of Miss Hazel Taft and Harry Klester, who were married at St. Clement's Episcopal church at 8 o'clock in the presence of a large gathering of interested friends.

The church was simply but effectively decorated with numbers of palms grouped about the altar.

Mrs. P. W. Bauer attended her sister as matron of honor, and Miss Vera Dutton was the bridesmaid.

The ushers and groomsmen were: Henry Swearingen, Julius Rotermann, Edgar J. Maxwell, George Klester, Jr., Kenneth McCallum presided at the organ, playing the wedding march from Lohengrin as the bridal party entered.

Immediately preceding the bride came the little flower girl, Elsie Baser, who was daintily gowned in white. The bride entered the church with her mother, Mrs. Nellie Taft, who gave her in marriage. They were met at the altar by the groom, with his best man, Ross Klester, and the marriage service of the Episcopal church was impressively said by Rev. Henry Easter.

The bride was beautifully gowned in emerald green with white trimmings, and the bridesmaid, Miss Vera Dutton, wore white marquisette over pink satin. Black picture hats completed these very becoming costumes, and bouquets of pink bridesmaid's roses were carried.

The matron of honor, Mrs. Bauer, was attired in white marquisette, embroidered in blue, and the bridesmaid, Miss Vera Dutton, wore white marquisette over pink satin. Black picture hats completed these very becoming costumes, and bouquets of pink bridesmaid's roses were carried.

Mrs. Nellie Taft, the mother of the bride, was handsomely gowned in gray silk with trimmings of hand made lace, and touches of coral.

A reception followed the ceremony at the home of Mrs. F. W. Bauer, to which a large number of friends were invited. The house was beautifully decorated in roses, while fragrant honeysuckle here and there gave a suggestion of the spring time.

Refreshments were served and those assisting the hostess in receiving and entertaining were: Misses Helen Mer

Will, Ann Magoffin, Zoetta Robinson, Vera and Jessie Dutton.

The bride is an attractive young girl, who has been raised in this city and is popular with a wide circle of friends.

The groom has lived here a number of years, is well known and has many friends. He is connected with the Mine and Smelter Supply company.

Mr. and Mrs. Klester will occupy their new residence at Tobin place, which is nearing completion, after June 1.

An event of much interest to El Paso society will be the marriage this evening at the First Presbyterian church of Miss Ethel White and Charles R. Loomis.

The ceremony will be performed at 8 o'clock by Rev. C. L. Overstreet and will be followed by a reception at the bride's home, to which invitations have been issued only to intimate friends.

Miss White is the popular daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Z. T. White, and since her engagement was announced has been the inspiration of many delightful social affairs.

C. F. Barrett, and Miss Ora Milliken, both of Houston, were quietly married Saturday evening at 8 o'clock at the parsonage of Trinity M. E. church. The ceremony was performed by Rev. C. S. Wright, and witnessed by a few friends.

Sunday morning at 9:30 o'clock, at the parsonage of the First Baptist church, F. E. Gallagher and Miss Rose Reynolds were united in marriage, with Rev. J. D. Ray officiating. Both young people are El Pasoans, and will make their future home here. The groom is connected with the Tri-State Telephone company.

JONES IS ALMOST HERE

Only a Week Now Before You Will Know What Happened to Jones.

A week from tomorrow is May 4th, and the evening of May 4th the Knights of Columbus present "What Happened to Jones." These annual entertainments of the Knights of Columbus are always well acted and always full of fun from start to finish. "What Happened to Jones" promises to be even better acted and even funnier than usual. Seats are now selling at Ryan's Drug Store, and the price is only $1.00.

Automobile livery, all good cars. W. Bob Hillgartner, Bell phone 362.

Office Desks at Actual Cost!

QUARTER SAWED OAK SANITARY DESKS—Wax finish. Standard 50 inches wide. These are elegant desks and if you want one you must hurry as they won't last long. In the future we will not handle office desks. THAT IS WHY we will sell the few remaining DESKS AT ACTUAL COST. COME AND SEE THEM.

Furniture Young Sells It For Less

EXTRA SPECIALS FOR ONE WEEK

Tuborettes .35c Magazine Racks .125c
16-inch Solid Oak Center Table .85c 20-inch Solid Oak Center Table $1.35
American Quartered Oak Center Table, glass top $2.10

Young's El Paso Furniture Co.

307 S. El Paso St. Both Phos

DANCES.

The senior class of the High school was very delightfully entertained on Friday evening with a masquerade dance given by the Three B. class of the High school at the home of Miss Edith Perrenot.

Roses and sweet peas in artistic profusion formed the floral adornments of the home. The grand march was led by Miss Hattie Ellis and Nelson Wright, both of whom were in fancy dress.

Misses Imogene Leavell and Ella Petricolas served fruit punch, and the dance refreshments of ices and cake were served. Those in attendance were: Misses Hattie Ellis, Mary Robertson, Mary Lewis, Grace Fleck, Bourlah Brown, Marion Young, Mabelle Bryan, Pauline Bryan, Birdie Hawkins, Stella Brick, Alma Morrison, Mary Leighton, Frances Henderson, Greta Palmer, Gail Ables, Marion Bowden, Nell Hamilton, Edith Perrenot, Edith Switzer, Turner, Robert Mullen, Norman Morrison, Richard McHatten, Harry Darrach, Earl Teague, Frank Ross, James Hardie, Baylor Foster, Robert Hoover, Crawford Dudley, Vernon Lyman, Leon Roland, Homey Thomas, Wendell Kuhn, Lynn Mee, Robinson, Lawrence O'Shea.

On Saturday evening a merry party of hay riders assembled at the home of Mrs. L. A. Shedd on Montana street as a starting point, with Porcher's ranch as their destination.

Upon their arrival at the hospitable ranch home, the house was thrown open and dancers enjoyed for several hours, after which the abundant picnic luncheon was served.

Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Shedd chaperoned the young people, who were: Misses Sybil Shedd, Nellie Gallard, Constance Pateman, Lucille Smith, Louise Sanburn, Meta Ormsbee, Marion Campbell, Mable Cole, Kate Krause, Messrs. Milton Shedd, Henry Shedd, Walter Davis, Howard Gilman, Nelson Torrence, Robert Hardaway, Lock, Nest, Russell Thompson.

EL PASOANS RETURNING.

Mrs. R. S. Comfort and daughter, Miss Florence Comfort, arrived home Sunday from Nacozari, Mexico, where they have been all winter, visiting at her former's daughter, Mrs. Gerald Windsor.

Mrs. M. T. Huntington, accompanied by her children, returned home the night of this week from an all winter sojourn with relatives in the eastern part of the state.

Miss Alice Davis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Davis, is expected to arrive home the first of the week from San Antonio, where she has spent the last six months visiting her cousins, Lieut. and Mrs. Garber, of Fort San Antonio. Miss Davis has been one of the most popular girls of San Antonio during the past season, and at the battle of flowers was chosen as duchess to represent El Paso. Miss Dora Frederick, who spent last winter at Fort Bliss, and Miss Davis's maid of honor, and Lieut. Claggett and Hill also of Fort Bliss, were appointed as her knight and esquire.

Rabbi Martin Zielonka will return Friday from the east and will hold services Friday evening at Temple Mt. Sinai.

PLEASE EVERYBODY.

Scott White & Co.'s New Store in the Mills Building is Pleasing Everybody.

Without exception, every one who has visited Scott White & Co.'s new store in the Mills building, has been well pleased. Besides being a modern and complete drug store, delicious soft drinks of all kinds are served from our new fountain. If you have not already visited this new store, suppose you drop in tomorrow and see what a nice place it is.

Hair goods manufactured to order. Elite Parlors, 216 Texas Street.

SEE TOP OF PAGE 7 FOR THE BIGGEST LAND BARGAIN EVER OFFERED

CHURCH AFFAIRS.

Miss Ada Robinson will entertain the Philathea class of the First Baptist church on Saturday afternoon in honor of Miss Ada Boyden, who is soon to be married.

The mission study class of Trinity M. E. church will meet on Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. Wilkes, 608 Arizona street.

The Philathea class of Trinity M. E. church will give a social on Friday evening in the basement of the church.

Mrs. Ralph Dimmitt and Mrs. W. B. Day entertained the Women's Missionary society of Calvary Baptist church yesterday afternoon in the church parlors.

Mrs. Frank Scott was the leader for the day.

The subject of study was "Missions in South America," and the program included a talk on foreign missions by Rev. W. H. Hatchell, of Juarez, and a duet by the Misses Gaylord.

Mrs. J. D. Bowers and Mrs. C. J. Brandt will be the hostesses for the society next week.

The women of Calvary Baptist church will give a social on Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. M. D. Gaylord, 411 Nevada street.

The young people's mission study class of Trinity church will meet on Thursday evening, instead of Friday, at the home of Mrs. Wilkes, 608 Arizona. The lesson is the "Response of Korea."

The Woman's Home Mission society of Trinity church will hold its regular business meeting in the church parlors Monday afternoon at 2:30. The devotional exercises will be led by Mesdames Spohr, Spence and Smith. The quartet will sing, "Give Me Thine Heart."

EL PASOANS AWAY.

Mrs. Isabel Flato and son, Billy, have gone to San Antonio, Houston and other east Texas points for a visit of several weeks.

Mrs. A. H. Snyder, accompanied by her children and her mother, Mrs. E. Windsor, left Saturday morning for San Diego, Cal., to spend the summer.

Mrs. Clarence Pickrell is spending a month visiting friends in San Antonio, and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. Cartwright, at Terrell, Texas.

Dr. Leslie Hyde, who has been seriously ill for a number of weeks, left recently, in company with her brother, Dr. Wendell Hyde, for Crowley, La., hoping to be benefited by the change, and news received indicates that she is much improved.

W. H. Burgess left Monday evening on a business trip to New Orleans.

Mrs. M. O. Wright is visiting relatives and friends at various points in east Texas.

Mrs. J. J. Finney is spending the week in Las Cruces, N. M., as the guest of Mrs. L. A. Broadus.

European Summer Tour.

Delightful itinerary visiting Scotland, England, France, Switzerland, Austria, Italy. Small party of Texas people, references given and required. Can arrange for part of tour. Send for booklet. Miss Anna Brown, 4205 Swiss Ave., Dallas.

MORE HOLEPROOF SOX.

It's hard for us to keep a supply of holeproof sock for ladies and gentlemen; were out for a few days but another shipment is here and any lady or gent can get them.

Bryan Bros.

SEE TOP OF PAGE 7 FOR THE BIGGEST LAND BARGAIN EVER OFFERED.

A swell selection of wash ties at Bryan Bros., 35 cents each or 3 for $1.00.

A Story Quickly Told

That last spring's suit or dress can be made to look like new if you turn it over to us. Whether it needs only cleaning or both dyeing and cleaning, we are the people to do it.

TEL. 786

WILKES
DYEING & CLEANING
WORKS

701 TEXAS ST.

Special attention paid to out-of-town orders

CARDS.

Among the delightful social events of the week was the bridge party given Friday afternoon in the parlors of the Elks' club by Mrs. C. E. Kellogg, complimentary to her niece, Miss Laura Maud Pink.

Pink and green was the attractive color motif chosen for the decorations, the dainty hand painted place and score cards being tied with pink and green ribbons, and the delicious refreshments of ices and cakes also meeting the color requirements.

Handsome sterling silver picture frames were given as prizes and were won by Misses Hattie Mae Loretz and Maude Rohmer. Punch was served during the afternoon, with the Misses Birdie Hawkins and Marion Young presiding at the bowl.

Those enjoying the afternoon were: Misses Laura Maud Pink, Marguerite Darbyshire, Estelle Berrien, Louise Wiegand, Clara Pink, Katie Stoker, Lucille Fries, Wilma Elliott, Allen Hague, Rena Caldwell, Carolyn Payne, Regina Schuster, Maude Rohmer, Frances Mayfield, Louise Sanburn, Florence Cox, Catherine Cox, Rachel Harper, Louise Sisterman, Marion Bowden, Katherine Harper, Loretta Erick, Ethel Brown, Juanita Smith, Lucille Smith, Adine Noake, Flora Campbell, Mabel Woods, Hattie Mae Loretz, Essie Darbyshire, Helen Longuemare, Judy Hague, Miss Richardson of Clint, Texas. Mesdames Julius Herdman, Joseph Caples, J. A. Rawlings, Herman Kayser, W. W. Pink.

An event of special interest was the bridge party and musical given Saturday afternoon at the Elks' club for the benefit of the Humane society. Many guests were in attendance, and the affair was most successful, both from the social and financial standpoint.

The club rooms were attractively decorated with quantities of carnations, which were donated by the Potter Floral company. Twenty tables were placed for the bridge players in the Elks' hall, and the large number of handsome prizes were awarded by Miss Myra Frazer to those holding the highest score, as follows: Mesdames P. P. Miller, J. A. Murdock, J. D. Hughes, J. Zelman, A. M. Kries, J. T. Hughes, Helen Roberts, R. F. Jenkins, W. J. Cox, Misses Florence Goodard, Emily Giddings, Ruth Evans, Alice Fitzpatrick, Hill.

While the games were in progress upstairs, a musical and reception was held in the parlors below for those not playing bridge, and the musical program was exceedingly well given, as follows:

Piano duet, "Gavotte"—Mrs. W. R. Brown and Miss Laura Maud Pink.

Vocal solo, "When We Two Were Maying"—Miss June P. Riggs.

Vocal solo, "The Rosary" (Nevin)—J. E. Rhein, tenor.

Piano solo, "Gullen" (Schumann)—Miss Chloe Calhoun.

Vocal solo (selected)—Mrs. Geo. C. Robertson.

Violin solo (Berceuse)—Miss Virginia Barnes.

Vocal solo, "Gipsy Song" from "Carmen" (Bizet)—Mrs. J. J. Pearce.

Vocal solo, "The Arrow and the Song" (Longfellow)—Chas. M. Gibson, baritone.

Piano solo, "Rondo Brilliant" Op. 62 (Weber)—Miss Nellie M. Bowen.

Vocal solo (selected)—Mrs. Lella T. Moore.

Duet from "Norma"—Mrs. J. J. Pearce and Miss Bertha Stanhope.

Reading, "The Dog's Eulogy" and "The Horae's Prayer"—Mrs. N. R. Crozier.

Punch was served to the many guests in attendance, and the affair was in every way delightful, reflecting credit upon the committee in charge, who were: Mesdames W. A. White, E. H. Yale, P. H. Curran, R. M. Williams, Bertha Stockwell, A. M. Walthall, J. E. Rhein, William Cady.

Mrs. Ethel White, whose marriage occurs this evening, was the inspiration for a charmingly arranged bridge party given Saturday afternoon by Mrs. John L. Dyer.

The house was attractively decorated throughout with Easter lilies, producing a most pleasing effect. Seven tables were placed for the players, and following the games a two course menu was served.

Mrs. R. M. Wolcott and Miss Sue Crombie were the successful prize winners. Miss Ruth McCurdy was awarded the consolation prize, and the honor guest also received a handsome prize.

Mrs. J. B. Watson will be the hostess for the Married Women's Wednesday Bridge club tomorrow afternoon at her home on North El Paso street.

Miss Pauline Sprinz entertained the Girls' Thursday Bridge club last week on Saturday. Miss Lucille Smith will be the next hostess.

Mrs. S. P. Weisiger will entertain the Tuesday Bridge club next week, instead of Mrs. W. W. Turney.

Bryan Bros.

SEE TOP OF PAGE 7 FOR THE BIGGEST LAND BARGAIN EVER OFFERED.

A swell selection of wash ties at Bryan Bros., 35 cents each or 3 for $1.00.

SEE TOP OF PAGE 7 FOR THE BIGGEST LAND BARGAIN EVER OFFERED.

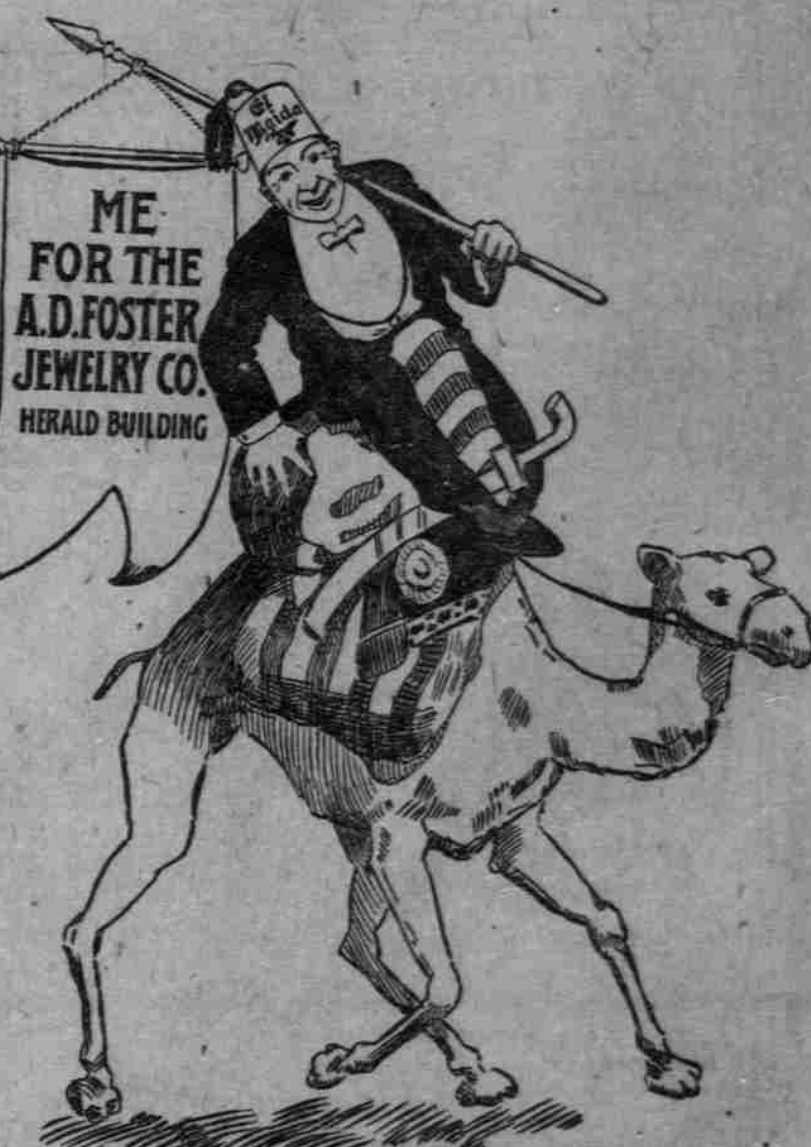

A swell selection of wash ties at Bryan Bros., 35 cents each or 3 for $1.00.

SEE TOP OF PAGE 7 FOR THE BIGGEST LAND BARGAIN EVER OFFERED.

A swell selection of wash ties at Bryan Bros., 35 cents each or 3 for $1.00.

SEE TOP OF PAGE 7 FOR THE BIGGEST LAND BARGAIN EVER OFFERED.

A swell selection of wash ties at Bryan Bros., 35 cents each or 3 for $1.00.

Reach Official Base Balls

ALSO A FULL LINE OF

"REACH" BASE BALL GOODS

... For Sale by ...

WITH THE SICK.

After a short illness, J. E. Peyton is again able to be out.

Mrs. R. F. Campbell continues quite ill at her home on Mesa avenue.

Mrs. A. H. Goldstein is recovering from an operation for appendicitis.

W. W. Pink is confined to his home, as the result of a sprained shoulder.

Automobile livery, all good cars. W. Bob Hillgartner, Bell phone 362.

ORDER A NEW SUIT.

Let us make your new suit. It will fit and will cost you $5 to $10 less than at any other place in El Paso. Beautiful new spring and summer line of suitings to select from.

Bryan Bros.

See Special
Window
DisplayScottish Rite
Jewelry

This week we are making a special display of Masonic emblems. This display embraces Blue Lodge emblems, Knights Templar emblems and Shrine emblems. A big feature is Scottish Rite jewelry. Thirty-second degree charms, rings and buttons are shown in a wide variety of choice. As this is one of the most extensive displays ever made in the Southwest of Scottish Rite jewelry, we cordially invite all Scottish Rite Masons to see it. No obligation whatever to buy.

THE A. D. FOSTER CO.

JEWELERS

HERALD BUILDING